Track & approve in-kind donations.

Tracking applications for your brand's in-kind donations is usually just a patchwork of spreadsheets in Excel or Google Sheets. Accounting often has trouble finding them and your staff that manages them can't find them without searching incessantly. With Selflessly, you can easily approve in-kind donations in one easy-to-use interface.

Key Features

Offer Products & Services

Selflessly allows you to create a wide variety of ways you can give back. If you build or produce a product – great! Skilled volunteers that could provide services – amazing!

Track Distributions

We aren't just an online form. You can update the status of the product, which is especially helpful if multiple teams are involved in a donation.

Real-Time Notifications

You are busy! We get it. If a cause applies, we will let you know via e-mail and in-app messages. No more balls dropped.

Find Sponsorships & Grants

Want to find grants or sponsorships? Not a problem. If you can donate it, you can manage the entire transaction through our platform. Reporting included!
